CLASSROOM NEWS

Preschool: This week we will be talking about the special people who help us in our neighborhood - fire fighters, police officers, doctors, nurses and dentists.

We will try to have another round of Show and Tell on Thursday and Friday. Help your child to pick one item and plan what he/she will tell us about it.

Please note the information about the Parent workshop that is coming up on Feb. 27. This will be great safety information for all of us. Babysitting is available.

Bible Hour: We will learn about the 2nd person of God this week: God the Son, Jesus.

Please note that the Kindergarten will host the Bible Hour students for our final session on Tuesday morning, March 12. We will make our annual "Fruit of the Spirit" fruit salad, so each child should plan to bring 1 cup of FRESH FRUIT that morning.

Kindergarten: Spirit Week was short, but it was great fun! Thank you to Mrs. Boelk, Mrs. Schmitz, and the cheerleaders for all of the fun activities you included the kindergarten in during the week. The Buddy activities, dress up days, and learning the "battle cry" were especially exciting!

Please mark your calendar for our very important Parent Workshop on February 27! Register at www.redeemerfdl.org to help us plan.

Reminder: Reading Records are due on February 28.

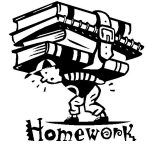

We were excited to see Owen's new smile last week after he lost his very first tooth on our snow day!

We will celebrate with Evan tomorrow as he turns six years old! Happy Birthday, Evan!

We will learn the letter Ee this week. We will watch for good letter formation from Evan and Owen.

Story Time Snack – Owen

Grades 1-2: We are back into a full week of school. Please help your child get rest each night and stay on top of homework, especially nightly reading requirements and memory work. The February reading log is due next week already! The 2nd due date for the Timber Rattlers and Packer program was last Friday so those prizes will come home..

Book orders sent home last week will be due on Wednesday this week. Take a look!

We will not have new reading/spelling units this week as we are still catching up from our snow/cold days.

Our classroom will have a hallway display for the March Social Studies Fair. We will begin our study of national symbols, and will choose a few to share with you through art work and fact presentation.

Grades 3-4: Don't forget your precorder/recorders tomorrow. Book orders came home and are due on Friday. Project ideas are coming home for the Social Studies fair. Please help your student choose their topic and return to school. We will work on this a little at school, but quite a bit will need to be done at home. Please ask if you have any questions.

We had such an amazing time snowshoeing at Ledge View Nature Center. What a great experience! The conditions were perfect, we prayed for the snow, and God delivered big time! I hope the kids had as great of a time as I did. Thank you to our drivers.

This will be a busy week! After all our snow days we have some ground to cover and of course we haven't had a full week of school for awhile. Please help your student get "back in the groove" by getting enough sleep and finding that schedule again. I have a feeling we'll all be tired by the end of the week! Have a great week everyone!

Grades 5-6: Social Studies Fair papers are due tomorrow. I will be going through with the students making sure all their parts are complete in class. All of the different parts will be printed and handed in by the end of the class period. The students will have a good chunk of time on Thursday to start working on their board.
